

LEWISTOWN LIQUOR COMMISSION MEETING

DATE: August 9, 2016
LEWISTOWN CITY HALL 6:15 p.m.

PRESENT: John Barclay, Billy Simmons, Reba Ford, Sheldon Burget, Alicia Campbell and Cindy Goddard. Absent: Kevin Delmastro and Mayor King.

Alderman Barclay nominated Reba Ford as acting mayor.

The Liquor Commission to discuss changes in the age from 21 to 18 years to serve beer and alcohol, 2- Cousins on Main wants to hire 18 year old waitresses.

Billie Simmons suggested they get Basset Alcohol License to serve. This would allow 18 year olds to serve. Could charge $5.00 fee but in 6 months it will be state law. Ryan Westerfield (2-Cousins on Main) said he is having all his waitress get the Basset License already because it is only $15.00. Commission decided to amend liquor licenses for all supper club and Class D licenses.

This will be presented to the rest of city council.

Meeting adjourned at 6:30 p.m.
