

LEWISTOWN LIQUOR COMMISSION MEETING

October 25, 2016 at 5:45 p.m.

The Lewistown Liquor Commission met at Lewistown City Hall on October 25, 2016 at 5:45 p.m.

PRESENT WERE: Mayor John King, Cindy Goddard, City Clerk, Billie Simmons, Kevin Delmastro, Alderman Burget, Barclay, Spotloe, Kelley, and Ford, Elmer Littlefield, Jr., Wendy Martin from Fulton Democrat and Hannah Schrodt, from Canton Daily Ledger.

Meeting was to discuss liquor license for poker machine in a package liquor store.

Council approached by A& C – Andrew Whitsitt (previously Dink's) to get another license to have poker machines.

Mayor King had a sample ordinance from Mason City, Class A and Class B convenient store, they had to buy two license. Our license states Class D there is a Class D-1, we could develop Class D-2.

Wendy Martin from Fulton Democrat stated that Illinois did a study that shows that the money is going to these machines instead of maybe of going into down town development.

To have Class D license already to purchase a Class D-2. Poker machines have to be separate area from rest of store. Can limit to poker area only and roped off? Billie Simmons suggested make it where D-2 license not eligible for outdoor events.

At this time there are five businesses with poker machines per Alderman Ford.

Table at this time. Mayor King to talk to Attorney Collins and also Andrew Whitsitt regarding adding a new license.

Liquor Commission meeting adjourned at 6:10 p.m.

---

Cindy Goddard, City Clerk